ARTIST	John Ainsworth		Greg Ash		T Brian Aylward
TITLE OF WORK	Country Postcode	Towards the Light	Esperance West Beach	Green Dome Jewellery Set	Southern Mallee	York Summer
SIZE	96cm x 78cm	96cm x 78cm	50cm	2cm, 1.5cm, 1cm	54cm x 75cm	78cm x 56cm
MEDIUM	Watercolour	Watercolour	Glass	Glass/Silver	Pastel	Mixed
	John Ainsworth grew up in the wheatbelt town of Corrigin. He has been painting in watercolours for fourteen years and has been awarded over 135 prizes.		Greg is a glass artist and has spent many years perfecting the production of dichroic glass, where glass is fired with metallic atoms and imbued with breathtaking reflective and refractive properties. Many of Greg's past students from Mt Lawley Primary School attend MLSHS.		T Brian Aylward was born in 1939 at Warnham, West Sussex, UK and studied art part-time at Horsham Art School. He immigrated to WA in 1968 and has always been stimulated by the Australian light and countryside. Since 1990, he has been a full-time artist working from his studio at Wooroloo. Brian had appeared in "Australian Artist" and has presented many talks and workshops and taught art at TAFE. His art can be found in private and corporate collections around the world.

ORDER	5	40	37
ARTIST	Diane Bastick		Patti Belletty	Charles (Jana) Benjafield
TITLE OF WORK	Exposure		Pleated Chiffon Wrap	Lily One
SIZE	100cm x 75cm		One size fits most	96cm x 74cm
MEDIUM	Acrylic		Fabric Chiffon	Pastel
	Diane Bastick is a member of the Wanneroo Art Society and the North Coast Art Club. Her paintings have been entered in exhibitions within WA and have had success with sales of her artwork. Her inspiration comes from the many land and seascapes of Australia, in particular our beautiful oceans and stunning outback.		Patti Belletty first started pleating in 2001 after visiting the Palazzo Fortuny Museum in Venice. Her scarves and wraps celebrate the spirit of Fortuny and the ancient garments that inspired his genius, presenting easy to wear options that embody a timeless beauty. Patti was born and lives in WA and works in a local art gallery.	Charles Benjafield's primary source of inspiration is the interior landscape. Charles says of his own work, "I don't paint what I see, I paint what I feel, think and imagine. I have no specific style. The visual quality of the work I produce is dependent on the idea or emotion I am trying to express."

ORDER	7	13	6	76	81
ARTIST	Christine Blowfield		Marilyn Boast	Rosalind Boyle
TITLE OF WORK	Seaweed, Sand and Sea - Meelup	Koi II	Lost in the Music	Jabiru Lake	Floral Fantasy
SIZE	90cm x 120cm	120cm x 90cm	46cm x 65cm	100cm x 100cm	91cm x 91cm
MEDIUM	Acrylic	Acrylic	Acrylic	Acrylic	Acrylic
	As a pastel and acrylic artist, Christine Blowfield enjoys subjects that show depth of perspective and good colour values. Colour is a huge part of her work and she hopes to portray depth and distance. Christine also tries to vary her subjects from animals to landscapes.		Marilyn Boast loves colour and paints with passion. She has studied Art at Fremantle Arts Centre and done numerous workshops. Marilyn has won a number of awards and had her own exhibitions and shows in Galleries around WA. She loves to capture people doing what they do best.	Rosalind Boyle has always had a strong creative impulse working with a number of mediums as a hobby over the years but beginning seriously in 2006 with oils and acrylics. After being involved with the reforming of the Bassendean Arts Council, Rosalind is currently the chairperson and holds weekend workshops through the BAC. She has also been teaching privately and exhibiting for the last 3 years.

ORDER	74	69	38	54
ARTIST	Marie Brain			Doreen Byrne
TITLE OF WORK	Colour Fusion	Night Fire	Mondrian x 2	Salt Lake: White Lake
SIZE	54cm x 86cm	50cm x 26cm	120cm x 60cm	90cm x 90cm
MEDIUM	Glass	Glass	Glass	Oil on Canvas
	Marie Brain has been working with glass for almost 3 years, having worked more with textiles in the past. She recently exhibited at Perth College Art show with great success. Marie tends to go for bright colourful pieces. She likes the organic nature of glass because it is almost anarchic.			Born in Onslow, the endless space and isolation of the Northern and inland areas of WA has always been an inspiration for Doreen Byrne's art. The Salt Lakes in the landscape have always fascinated her. The dichotomy of soft colour and harsh environment so deadly, yet so eerily beautiful. Painting of the Salt Lake Series was completed following a holiday in the central and eastern areas of the Pilbara.
